

33 Postcards From Heaven: A Novel Correspondence

All Joe Deegan ever wanted was a quiet, simple life in a reasonably organic environment. So naturally he comes to Heaven seeking healing, enlightenment and a little lie down on an unspoilt beach where it finally dawns on him that while life could be completely miraculous, time remained unbearably short. And with expensive guidance from his accountant/guru things were going really well...until the occasion of Joes 50th birthday. In quick succession he nearly drowns in the surf, virtually throws away an undemanding, well paid job, and almost destroys the perfect relationship. When it looks as though his modest fibro cottage is about to be swamped by dozens of pink and lilac cluster town houses, the beautiful day starts to go seriously pear shaped...
