

Lucky Number Six (The Fortune Cookie Diaries Book 1)

Warning: Reading Lucky Number Six may cause uncontrolled bursts of laughter, spewing drink out of the readers nose, belief in snarky carnivorous unicorns and the need to visit New Orleans during Mardi Gras. In New Orleans something with a weird sense of humor is stranding mythical creatures in Dr. Tiffany Crewss courtyard. Renowned psychiatrist, klutz, and Arkansas hillbilly with her feet firmly rooted in reality, Tiffany isnt quite ready for a one hundred twenty pound fairy godmother sporting dragonfly wings, nor a unicorn to come waltzing into her life. Especially when the unicorn starts talking and farting rainbows and her new fairy godmother insists shes been sent because happily-single Tiffany made a wish to find her one true love. Every attempt for Tiffany and her roommate and friends to shove these mythical charges back to the place where they belong ends in hijinks and compromising situations. Never one to give up on a tricky problem, nor her grip on sanity, Tiffany decides she needs to fit the two myths into reality and Mardi Gras is just the time to start. But if only it was that easy.
