

Alexander and Catherine (Lady Catherine Book 2)

The follow-up to Lady Catherine, Alex and Catherine, recently married, have returned to 16th Century England where they upset the local witches and are in and out of favour with Queen Elizabeth I, who while in favour knighted Alex. A Sir and father to Kate and Elizabeth, Alex has to supervise and defend his estate while accompanied by a talking horse, two protective eagles, and Rochele and her pet dragon, to whom Catherine takes an instant dislike. Homesick, will Alex ever return to the time and place he calls home, and be reunited with his twenty-first century family - his parents and sister. Which will he choose in the end?
