

Welsh Legends and Myths: 80 Myths and Legends from across Wales

A best selling mythology collection of eighty Welsh Legends and Myths gathered from across Wales. This compendium of Welsh tales is filled with traditional myths, Welsh fables, fairy tales and real stories that continue the tradition of Celtic story telling. The legends of the Lady of the Lake and King Arthurs legend are centuries old, others like the legend of Gelert are more recent inventions. In this monster myths and legends book you will discover...Why a prince is sleeping in the caves deep beneath Carreg Cennen Castle high in the Black Mountains, waiting for a clarion call to arms. The sad story of Prince Llewelyns faithful hound Gelert and why a town is named after the dutiful dog. Twm Sion Catis adventures as he fooled the people of Llandoverly and why some call him the Welsh Robin Hood. The legend of King Arthurs death on Mount Snowdon and the true fate of his sword Excalibur. Why Dwynwen, the patron saint of lovers, lives on a beautiful island off the coast of Anglesey. Why a lonely shepherd was turned to stone and stands watch on the mountain for the rest of time. According to legend, only returning to his human form once a year. Wales with its rugged mountains, beautiful waterfalls, mysterious lakes and magical castles is a land of mystery, folklore and legend. These are just some of the Welsh legends and myths you will find in these pages but theres more...Dafydd Gam, the cross eyed archer who saved a kings life. His legend is remembered in Shakespeares Henry V. The truth behind his tale is here. Learn the legend of Owain and the Gwiber, an evil giant snake-like beast with wings, its body covered in putrid slime. Why the Men of Harlech are immortalised in a legendary song. The Lost Land of Wales, a story of desire, drunkenness and disaster. How the Welshman Prince Madoc and his followers discovered America. The mythical tale of the Tylwyth Teg (The Fairies) of Pentrefoelas, one of the oldest Welsh fairy tales, a Welsh fable of love and desertion. Why no bird ever flies over Llyn Idwal. How King Tewdrig returned to save his kingdom. And why St. Seiriol the Fair had a chalk white face. From before the time of the Mabinogion and the 12th Century Black Book of Carmarthen Welsh folk have passed dark winter nights in front of roaring fires and entertained each other with mythical stories. Like other Celtic folklore many of the myths and legends are based on factual events. Others have mythical roots but all are entertaining.
