

Paradise Tales

Cambodia, Kosovo, Mars, & beyond Geoff Ryman's stories take us to recognizable places London, Cambodia, tomorrow and feature men and women in recognizable situations (or dealing with almost familiar technologies) but who aren't sure which way to turn. They should obviously choose what's right ... but what if that's difficult? What if it isn't obvious? What will we do? Will we do as we should, or ... ? Paradise Tales builds on the success of Geoff Ryman's most recent novel, The King's Last Song, with three stories set in Cambodia, The Last Ten Years of the Hero Kai, Blocked, and Pol Pot's Beautiful Daughter. Thirteen more stories are selected from throughout Ryman's career including VAO, Omnisexual, The Film-makers of Mars, and an intense new story, K is for Kosovo (or, Massimo's Career). Ryman's stories are transformative, exuberant, superbly crafted intimate moments which dissect our day-to-day life and reveal the world changing right before our very eyes. Geoff Ryman is the author of The Child Garden, Was, and The Unconquered Country. His books have received the British Science Fiction, World Fantasy, Arthur C. Clarke, Campbell, and Sunburst awards. Canadian by birth, he has lived in Cambodia and Brazil and now teaches creative writing at the University of Manchester in England.
