

Deep Canyon Kill (Mountain Jack Pike Book 11)

RANDY AND ROUGH, HES A MEAN, MOUNTAIN MAN WITH A NOSE FOR TROUBLE AND A HANKERIN FOR HOT BEAVER! After a spell of setting traps and livin off the rough mountain country, Jack Pike got hungry for the fleshpots most men call home. Meetin up with his trail pard Skins McConnell, Pike aimed to sample himself something warm and willin at the local post when he ran into trouble. Father Smets and his missionaries were on the trail of a lost band of their compadres when their guides robbed them, leaving them stranded in hostile Indian territory. With the Blackfeet and Flathead tribes fixin to go to war, Pike and McConnell signed on to lead the padre to safe ground. And, when a saucy camp girl named Sally offered to keep his bedroll warm, the big mountain man knew hed be sitting pretty. But as soon as the fighting started, he had his long gun out, primed and ready to bring the scalp-happy savages to their knees in a bloody desert climax!
