

From the Devils Pulpit

Agard gives us a Devils eye view of the world, sweeping from Genesis across time. A sometimes poignant, bawdy, witty, and sophisticated shape-shifter, even sex-switcher, Agards Devil engages with the mythical world, metaphysics, theology, politics and the arts - and takes us to Wimbledon Center Court and Lords cricket ground as well. He won the Casa de la Americas Prize in 1982 and in 1993 became the first Writer in Residence at Londons South Bank Center, who published his book, A Stones Throw from the Embankment during that residency.
