

The Blue Children: Short Vampire Fiction

The Blue Children: Short Vampire Fiction A collection short vampire fiction, not for the faint of heart. Includes: The Abandoned City: Van and Sara live in a dilapidated city overrun with vampires, which is great for work, since Van is a vampire hunter. The only problem is he's been bitten in the line of duty and is changing into one of the creatures he kills for a living. To make things worse, he's getting thirstier by the moment and Sara has bigger issues at stake, like protecting her unborn child. The Blue Children: An ancient vampire must make the difficult decision to lead his undead children into the light. Julians Diary (A Darklands Vampires Story): The gruesome history of Dunwich, the setting for the novel Darklands: A Vampires Tale is featured in his journal-style short. My Shadowman: A colonial Charleston, SC lady-of-the-evening has an unpleasant caller. The Vampire Hunters Tale: A lone hunter in an industrial wasteland uses the safety of daylight to do his dirty work. Darklands: Kasper and Lexis Tale (An Excerpt from Darklands: A Vampires Tale) Also includes the vampire poetry selections: Paint You Pale, Stepping Into the Light, Racing the Light and Thrown Away Children.
