

Doing Crime: A Kat Makris Greek Mafia Novel

With Grandmas second best henchman and his wife tagging along, Katerina Makris is back in Portland to untangle some of her kidnapped fathers secrets. However, she gets sidetracked when she discovers her house is one corpse less empty than it was when she left. To complicate things, a pair of American cops are snooping around, asking questions about her missing father and a fellow detective they cant seem to locate. When it becomes apparent that her fathers secrets extend beyond the small safe in the bathroom wall, Kat races back to Greece, where she discovers the sexy, and very-very-bad-for-her, Detective Nikos Melas has been involved in a deadly stakeout. And Grandma has a new/old enemy who wouldnt mind getting cozy with Kat, especially now that Grandmas reign is growing shorter by the day. Its a long, hot Greek summer and the bodies are stacking up ... and exploding. Everyone on the dark side wants Kat to play on their team. Kats just trying to find her dad. Whats a mostly decent woman to do, and what are these green bits in Grandmas cookies?
