

Homing Pigeons: Wonderings, Wanderings & Poetic Meanderings ...

As implied by the subtitle of this collection, the 30 essays contained herein are wonderings, wanderings and poetic meanderings -- created over a period of six years or so. They catch me in a variety of moods: serious, playful, poetic, philosophical, devotional and more. Themes touched upon include the dialogue between science and spirituality, the wisdom embedded within moments of deep challenge, the healing power of the natural world, and the awe-inspiring fluidity of perception. And always, an underlying current defined by the question: who am I, really? May these at-times-quiet, at-times-raucous reflections be of benefit to all who chance upon them ...
