

How the Sun Got to Cocos House

Follow the journey of the sun across the world from a whales eye to a little girls window in Bob Grahams tender, transcendent story. While Coco sleeps far away, the sun creeps over a hill and skids across the water, touching a fishermans cap. It heads out over frozen forests, making shadows in a childs footprints, and balances on an airplanes wing for a little boy to see. The sun crosses cities and countrysides, wakes furry creatures, makes a desert rainbow, and barges into Cocos room to follow her through a day of play. With an eye for capturing small moments of shared experience, Bob Graham illuminates the natural wonder that comes with every new day.
