

In the Arena, Stories of Political Life (Classic Reprint)

The old-timer, a lean, retired pantaloon, sitting with loosely slippers close to the fire, thus gave of his wisdom to the questioning student: Looking back upon it all, what we most need in politics is more good men. Thousands of good men ARE in; and they need the others who are not in. More would come if they knew how MUCH they are needed. The dilettantes of the clubs who have so easily abused me, for instance all my life, for being a ward-worker, these and those other reformers who write papers about national corruption when they dont know how their own wards are swung, probably arent so useful as they might be.(Typographical errors above are due to OCR software and dont occur in the book.)About the Publisher Forgotten Books is a publisher of historical writings, such as: Philosophy, Classics, Science, Religion, History, Folklore and Mythology.Forgotten Books Classic Reprint Series utilizes the latest technology to regenerate facsimiles of historically important writings.
