

Inspiration: A Pop-up Book

An exhilarating three-dimensional visual interpretation of Chinese proverbs by anacclaimed paper engineer. If there is a wave there must be a wind. Count not what is lost, but what is left. Life is partly what we make it, and partly what is made by the friends we choose. The journey of a thousand miles begins with one step. A flower cannot blossom without sunshine nor a garden without love. Learning is a treasure that will follow its owner everywhere. Renowned paper engineer Ron van der Meer creates splendid sculptures interpreting six Chinese proverbs, awakening our senses and our curiosity. This three-dimensional book will inspire and uplift readers both young and old.
