

Journal of a tour in the Netherlands in the autumn of 1815

English travellers, it was once more opened upon the overthrow and abdication of Buonaparte. A journey which might have seemed easy from the south of England appeared formidable when contemplated in Cumberland: moreover, I was wedded to the enjoyments and occupations of domestic life ;and my wishes as well as habits were so disciplined that, except now and then in books, I never incurred any expenditure which could with propriety be spared. If a thought of visiting France and Switzerland was ever entertained, it was in the -, potential mood, and in the paulo-post-futurum tense.(Typographical errors above are due to OCR software and dont occur in the book.)About the Publisher Forgotten Books is a publisher of historical writings, such as: Philosophy, Classics, Science, Religion, History, Folklore and Mythology.Forgotten Books Classic Reprint Series utilizes the latest technology to regenerate facsimiles of historically important writings.
