

Murder Talks Turkey: Yooper Mystery #3 (A Gertie Johnson Murder Mystery)

Yooper Mystery #3, Murder Talks Turkey From National Bestselling Author, Deb Baker In her third Yooper mystery (as in the Upper Peninsula of Michigan, or U.P.), Bakers lively protagonist, Gertie Johnson, is minding her own business, standing in line at the bank when it gets robbed. From her position on the floor, Gertie watches as a gunman on the roof of a nearby building shoots the bank robber dead. She quickly decides that she and the other two members of her Trouble Buster Investigative Company (all single women of a certain age) need to help their hapless sheriff solve the case. The trouble is feisty Gertie has a lot on her plate, what with her extended family, her other investigations, and a tentative new romance. The deeper into the bank robbery she goes, the more complicated and seriously dangerous it gets. Intrepid Gertie is a wonderfully drawn character, whose view of the U.P.s denizens and their surroundings makes for enjoyable storytelling. ~ Booklist (A) delight to read. In addition to the engaging mystery, its a wonderful story of the love of family and friends. ~ Hidden Staircase Mystery Books Deb Baker has perfectly captured the spirit and lifestyle of those who dwell above The Bridge. ~ Traverse City Record-Eagle If youre looking for a chuckle-filled read, visit Stonely at every opportunity. Suddenly, your own crazy relatives wont seem so bad! ~ Mysterical-E One of the most memorable heroines in recent crime fiction. ~ Lansing State Journal Take a wild ride through the North Woods with Deb Bakers latest Yooper Mystery. Murder Talks Turkey is a laugh out loud, action-packed romp with some of the zaniest mystery investigators ever. Armed with walkie-talkies, stun gun, and Wonderbras, Gertie Johnson and friends hunt for the killer--and create more trouble than they started out with. Its a hoot and a half. ~ Maggie Sefton, author of A Killer Stitch The heart of Murder Talks Turkey is

Gertie. If she lived in the south rather than the far north, we'd call her a steel magnolia. When she is on the lam, Gertie does it in a style not before seen in crime fiction. ~ Cozy Library [A] hilarious light-hearted mystery. -- Book Lover Blog (May 2011 new cover design by Patricia Ryan)
