

My Friend Suhana: A Story of Friendship and Cerebral Palsy (Growing with Love)

A simple tale of love and friendship to warm your heart Award-winning author and designer Shaila Abdullah teams up with her 10-year-old daughter Aanyah to bring you this heartwarming tale of a little girl who forms a close bond with a child with cerebral palsy. The girl finds that through her art, she can reach her special friend Suhana. My Friend Suhana is a delightful read for a childrens book. Very well illustrated with respect, friendship, and advocacy all in mind at the same time. --Dawn Cruzan, President, Camp Craig Allen for all abilities This is the story of a seven-year-olds first attempt at unconditional love. Tough but tender, inspirational yet utterly real, this is a small gem of a tale. Highly recommended for anyone in the position of mentoring a beloved child through the hard places of life. --Paula Huston, author of A Season of Mystery and A Land Without Sin My Friend Suhana is a charming and perceptive book that will draw its readers into empathy while allowing them to enjoy this heartwarming story of two uncommon friends. --Chitra Divakaruni, author of Grandma and the Great Gourd Learn more at www.MyFriendSuhana.com From the Growing With Love Series at www.LHPress.com
