

Normalized (Part Three: Grounded)

Captain Might used to have everything, now he just has everything to complain about. With the dread specter of Professor Death hovering over the Earth ready to turn the planet into a smoke ring, where is mankind's valiant savior? Holed up in the burbs sucking back booze like a pup on a tit, that's where. When the news breaks that Captain Might has lost his mojo, his safety becomes hopelessly compromised. Supervillains the world over start lining up to settle the Caps hash; supervillains who can kill him as soon as look at him (literally in a few cases). For his own well-being, our former hero is enrolled into a protection program and relocated to an undisclosed location codenamed The Bunker grounded, in every sense of the word. But no sooner has Captain Might ditched the Spandex and learned to accept his fate than he discovers Professor Death isn't finished with him just yet Part Three of the Normalized quartet.
