

Passages from the American Note-Books of Nathaniel Hawthorne, Vol. 2 of 2 (Classic Reprint)

Arctic Circle, and chosen my heritage among everlasting snows. .. Provide yourself with a good stock of furs, and if you can obtain the skin of a polar bear, you will find it a very suitable summer dress for this region. .. I have not yet taken my first lesson in agriculture, except that I went to see our cows foddered yesterday afternoon. We have eight of our own ;and the number is now increased by a transcendental heifer belonging to Miss Margaret Fuller. She is very fractious, I believe, and apt to kick over the milkpail. ... I intend to convert myself into a milkmaid this evening, but I pray Heaven that Mr. Ripley may be moved to assign me the kindest cow in the herd, otherwise I shall perform my duty with fear and trembling. .. I like my brethren in affliction very well ;and, could you see us sitting round our table at mealtimes, before the great kitchen fire, you would call it a cheerful sight. Mrs. Bis a most comfortable woman to behold. She looks as if her ample person were stuffed full of tenderness, indeed, as if she were all one great kind heart. ..(Typographical errors above are due to OCR software and dont occur in the book.)About the Publisher Forgotten Books is a publisher of historical writings, such as: Philosophy, Classics, Science, Religion, History, Folklore and Mythology.Forgotten Books Classic Reprint Series utilizes the latest technology to regenerate facsimiles of historically important writings.
