

Partly Sunny

All dressed up and going nowhere. According to the fashion trends Darcy Daniels had all the needed elements to rub elbows with the Kardashians, or at least the social climbers of Houston. A prestigious zip code, high fashion clothes, a fancy car and, most of all designer shoes. Miranda, her diva best friend, also had all of the above, and men fell over themselves for a chance to buy her a drink. But not Darcy. Yes, her zip code portrayed her place of residence in the prestigious Galleria Area, but her apartment was a dump, filled with some beyond weird tenants, especially her cantankerous apartment manager. Yes, her wardrobe appeared top-notch, but came from the Harwin Wholesale District, and yes, her SUV sort of resembled a BMW. But her shoes were the real deal, no cutting corners there, which left her money management skills in the toilet. Darcys closest friends appeared to have it all, back-stroking through life, while dog-paddling kept her nose barely above water. Through Darcys flawed filter they had everything, yet the universe of happiness seemed just beyond her reach. She was a good person. She cared for others, that is, when she wasnt coveting whatever they possessed. How does Darcy find her happy ever after? Should she rewrite her fairy tale?
