

Sakura Antipathy

Shu a High School senior from the countryside finds his parents murdered and the only person left willing to take him in is his sister who lives on outskirts of Tokyo Japan. Leaving everything behind, he joins her in the hope of finding something within himself to relieve the pain of losing his murdered mother and father. While in the city Shu meets new people and although he is young finds himself being married and stalked all at the same time. New questions arise about the murder of his mother and he is forced into taking action in finding out what really happened to her and why.
