

Forbidden Fruit (Shannon Cheney Book 1)

I see dead people. Okay, thats a lie. I hear dead people on an antique radio. So far, that talent hasnt brought Shannon Cheney fame or fortune. Since the world remains unaware that magick is real, being Gifted largely sucks. Her boss is an asshole, she makes minimum wage, and shes got a serious case of forbidden lust for a sexy cop named Jesse Saldana. Hes part Mexican heat, all Texas charm, and enough of a dirty cowboy to curl her toes. Too bad hes set on resisting her wiles. To make matters worse, theres this weird amnesia thing happening. She might think shes going crazy, except Jesses got it too, and memory loss isnt contagious like the flu. When Shannon pokes around, trying to put the missing pieces together, demonic retaliation is swift and potentially deadly. Jesses too much of a white knight to let her face danger alone, and shes hoping he cant resist the white-hot chemistry blazing between them----This is a spin-off from the Corine Solomon series. In terms of continuity, this is 3.5 and it fits in between Shady Lady and Devils Punch. Its written in first-person in Shannons POV and its hotter than the Corine series.
