

Within My Grasp (The Wanderer Series) (Volume 3)

Zafir doesn't believe the higher powers that exist give a damn about any of us, and he sure as hell doesn't pray. The forgiveness he's found for the sins in his past haven't come from above but from the fatherless child he rescued. On a mission to destroy the remaining Sylph that had a hand in the death of David's mother, Z and the Wanderers stumble upon a nasty plot over a generation in the making. As the enemy brings the battle to them David develops a potent new ability that threatens his very sanity. Fighting a war with his hands tied, Z is forced to turn to the one place he never imagined to help the boy he once saved: his knees. He seeks nothing more than the strength to finish the mission he started when he brought his son home. And God help anyone who tries to stand in his way...
