

The Mermaids Wish: The Chronicles of Melipo Book 2

This book has been re-edited to fix formatting errors. When the mermaid Kyneth discovers a human baby floating in the water after she lures a human's boat onto deadly reefs and causing it to sink, she thinks it is the answer to her most imminent problem. Surely raising the child will postpone the unwanted mating being forced upon her by the merking. She rescues the child and takes it to a nearby island. However, she falls in love with the human as he grows but fears that he will not love her if she is a mermaid. Her only choice, to go to the Dragonlord and request a change to human form. The Dragonlord agrees to change her, provided she will go on a fact-finding expedition with the sorcerer Brain and the alien, Zeb. Not only must she conquer her fear of the dragon, but even a hated demon will accompany them. But, her desire is strong. Unfortunately, she is soon separated from her companions and must find her way back to the Dragonlord alone. Calling a dolphin to take her back to him, she is intercepted by a human fishing boat and taken to the king, who holds her captive, thinking her an asset he can't do without. How will she escape the clutches of the humans, and what will happen next? Will the merking be angry with her for requesting the change? Will her human love her?
