

False Truth 2

Rookie TV reporter Jordan Fox graduated from journalism school and slid into her dream job at News Channel 12 on a secret mission to find answers to the very cold case of her mothers murder. But on the first day, she gets her pitch stolen, her pay cut, and her status demoted to intern. And thats just the first hour. Jordan plans to break a big story to stay employed long enough to do the real job only she can do. She gets her chance when she discovers the victim of a brutal crime on the scene of her first assignment. Determined to prove herself, Jordan investigates as if the victims story was hers to report -- but it isnt hers and her efforts only drive her further into trouble until she comes face-to-face with a killer. Jordan started this investigation to save her job; finishing it might be the only way to save her life. Lifes stories dont actually come in one complete package, do they?
