

Almost Unglued

When a woman gets pregnant she hopes for pure joy and happiness, but nothing could be further from the truth. Children can drive you nuts! Mishaps and hardships can begin with pregnancy and get worse as the days go on. No one warned us about the effort that goes into being pregnant or having kids, so now its time to set the record straight- while laughing! Hot to Not!

Before I got pregnant My body was great. Big boobs and flat stomach, Barbie could relate. Four months into pregnancy, I still was not showing; My hair full and shiny, My skin was just glowing. By three months till due date My clothes did not fit. Couldnt stand up for long; I just wanted to sit I couldnt bend down And my feet got real smelly. I should have said no to The tattoo on my belly. After baby was born I put on some tunes. Lost ten pounds like that And my boobs were balloons! This is awesome! I thought, Ill be normal real soon. Had the baby in February, Ill be hot by mid June... Then one day I noticed Some hair in my hat. Then looked in the sink And saw a tiny cat. A cat it was not, Just a bunch of my hair. If this keeps up long My head will be bare! I go to my stylist. What happened? I say. Its post baby hair loss... Happens every day. Give it a year It will all go away... Except the receding... Well, thats here to stay. Great, I say sullen, One more thing thats changed. Im so different now And feel somewhat deranged. Six weeks post baby, I got out my blue mat. Now Ill work out And lose all this fat. I get on my knees To start working my butt. Then Ill roll right on over And work on my gut. I lift up my leg At a very slow pace. My leg gave out quick; I fell flat on my face. Ill give it more time - I cant look like a troll. Ill soon be a MILF. Well at least thats my goal. In six months I was able To be back at the gym - Weights, classes, yoga, I started to get slim. After 2 years you will Get strong- I can vouch. But as much as you try... Youll never lose that
