

For Mature Teens Only

Being an LGBT teen is challenging, but the LGBT teens at West High School learn just how valuable they really are as a team; when they come face-to-face with social inequality and homophobia, in their high school. As a result, Anthony, an only child, who is openly gay, at age fourteen, is being raised by a single mom, who once struggled with accepting her son's sexual orientation. But witnessing how mature Anthony has become, helps Janette overcome her discomfort with his sexuality. Meanwhile, tenacious Tammy is sexy and full of life. But when she faces her father about her sexual orientation, she finds out just how much he really loves her.
