

You and Me, Baby

Hey, Baby! Look at you, looking at me, looking at you looking at me, says the parent narrator of this interactive book that helps new parents interact with babies as young as two months. Big close-up photographs illustrate each phrase--waving at me, waving at you, waving at me and so on through smiling, feeding, hugging, splashing, peeking, all the things babies do. Lynn Reiser's minimal text promotes early language development while it helps cement the bond between parent and baby. Penny Gentieu's adorable photographs of real babies and their parents portray the warmth of that bond. From the Hardcover edition.
